

Miles Shea is a native of Philadelphia, Pa., and resident of Florida. He received his undergraduate degree in Elementary Education from Ball State University and his Masters in Educational Leadership from Florida Atlantic University.

Miles began his teaching career in North Carolina as a fourth grade teacher. He then joined DoDEA in 1996 and has taught third, fifth and sixth grade while stationed in Japan, Germany and Georgia.

Miles has held numerous leadership positions in his career as an educator including Grade Chair, Committee Chair, School Improvement Chair and Acting Administrator. As a parent he has served as President of Project Graduation and coached soccer and basketball.

Miles has been married to Kristy, a third grade teacher, for 24 years. They are the proud parents of Tori, a graduate of Appalachian State University. Tori's husband Justin, a graduate of the University of Maryland, is the son of a Marine. Tori and Justin are new parents to Miles and Kristy's first grandchild, Rin.

Miles is an avid reader, cyclist, and golfer and enjoys traveling.