

SHAPE PTSA

Parent Teacher Student Association

If you are looking for a means of becoming involved in your children's school, consider volunteering for the PTSA. In 2006-2007 at the Elementary School, SHAPE PTSA offered Fall and Spring Pictures, invited a theater troupe to perform for the students, organized and ran Scholastic Book Clubs for Students, stocked and manned the Reading Incentive Station, published an ES Yearbook, purchased more than $2,000 of library books and reading quizzes and hosted author David Greenberg who presented assemblies or writing workshops to all students, to name just a few activities! These activities wouldn't happen with the PTSA and PTSA does not work without parental support.

If you would be interested in assisting with or organizing any of the following activities, please complete this form and return it to the school.

Thank you in advance!

PTSA, Elementary School Parent Representative
